- Cost: Festival admission is $12 for adults; $7 for seniors and for children ages 3-12; under 3 free. Free admission for everyone on Thursday.
- Ages: All ages

Description

Mayfest is the biggest party in Fort Worth! Four days of live music on three stages, festival food, carnival rides, performing arts, pet adoptions, live demonstrations, stilt walkers, art and gift market vendors, free children's activities, special attractions - the list goes on and on.

2026 Schedule:

Thursday, April 30, 3:30-9pm (free festival admission for all)

Friday, May 1, 3:30-10pm

Saturday, May 2, 10am-10pm

Sunday, May 3, 11am-7pm

Children's Area:

Located in the middle of the festival grounds adjacent to the Dream Park, the Children's Area is where you will find more than 20 free activities geared toward children ages 3-12. Surrounded by a white picket fence, The Children's Area is easy to find and hard to leave.

Under the shade trees young patrons can visit a variety of activities including a chalk house, giant sand pit perfect for digging for treasure, crafts, The Fort Worth Fire Department interactive stations, rock-painting, robots, The Children's Performing Arts Stage, and many other activities will keep you entertained for hours on end. It really is a festival within the festival. Make sure you come early though because The Children's Area closes each night at 7:30pm.

The baby changing area is located in an air-conditioned trailer within the Children's Area.

The nursing station for breastfeeding is conveniently located in First Aid within the Oasis Area.

Description

WhoaZone at Grapevine, located at Meadowmere Park, offers a full day of family fun on a floating ninja course and shaded seating rentals. WhoaZone's inflatable on-water Wibit obstacle course provides hours of high-energy fun for the whole family. The WhoaZone is designed to ensure every guest has an amazing experience. The floating obstacle course is perfect for those seeking over-the-top adventures and mind-blowing acrobatic thrills.

For the not-so-thrill-seekers, we've got your relaxing day at the water covered too. Kick back and relax while the kids play or for the entire day. Shaded seating includes one large umbrella and two lounge chairs to make your experience at the WhoaZone feel like a mini-vacation.

Ages:

For the KidsZone, you must be between the ages of 4 years old and 7 years old to participate on the floating obstacle course. The height requirement for the KidsZone is between 39" and 48" in height to participate. (Parents may accompany children around the KidsZone without a ticket, but are not permitted to play on the KidsZone.) For the WhoaZone aqua park, you must be at least 7 years old and 45" in height to participate on the floating obstacle course.

Life jackets:

All guests must wear a WhoaZone issued US Coast Guard certified lifejacket. Available in sizes Child through Adult 3XL, these are mandatory for all WhoaZone or KidsZone participants. If a guest is too small or too large for a WhoaZone lifejacket, they will not be able to participate, and a refund will be issued.

You cannot provide your own lifejacket for the WhoaZone or KidsZone aqua park. You CAN provide your own USCG certified lifejacket to wear in the free swimming area, WhoaZone lifejackets are only available during time on the aqua park.

- Cost: Free
- Ages: All ages

Description

Join SiNaCa Studios for its annual Ice Cream Social Fundraising Event on May 30, 2026, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at 1013 West Magnolia Avenue, Fort Worth, TX. This event is free and open to the public.

Enjoy ice cream, purchase handcrafted glass bowls, and reserve your spots to create your own sand-casted glass keepsake. These items are available for purchase prior to and at the event. All pre-purchased items will be ready for pickup on the day of the event. The hand-crafted glass bowls will be picked out on a first come basis, so get here early for the largest selection.

The event will also feature the final hot shop activity of the summer, with a raffle for the chance to "smash the bank" and release all the donations collected in last year's ice cream-themed glass piggy bank. Proceeds will go toward furnace upgrades and maintaining SiNaCa Studios' historic building. If you would like to see the piggy bank be smashed, please arrive at the start of the event at 11 a.m. as it will kick off the event!

Pre-order ice cream, raffle tickets, tee shirts, bowls, and spots for our sand casting class on our website below. All Bundles are $15 off until May 18th so get them while it lasts! Donations are also appreciated.
